

Brent Markofsky
Business Development

Skymark Real Estate Investors, LLC, Principal – 1996 to present

Presently overseeing all company land acquisitions and dispositions of the company's varied assets of residential and income producing properties. Over the past twenty years has developed substantial working relationships within the brokerage community, large tract owners in the State of Florida, and with regional / national builders. He has developed and maintained extensive investor and joint venture partner relationships for projects throughout the State of Florida and Maryland; His expertise is not only in established markets but also in anticipating the emerging real estate markets including the maximizing of usages in these holdings with land planners, the brokerage community, and marketing companies.

Taylor Made Lending, LLC, Principal – 2009 to present

Investor Relations